Premise:

God Desires Our Hearts, Not Merely Outward Religious Acts. Our New Hearts Change With Our Outlook On Life. Our New Hearts Change Our Perceptions And Cause Us To See Life As God Sees It. We Must Rend Our Old Hearts In Exchange For The Ultimate Promise

3-TAKEAWAYS

#1: The New Heart Enables Us To Look Up To What Will Be, Not Merely Look Upon What Is

#2: The New Heart Cannot Be Physically Seen, But Can And Must Be Experienced

#3: The New Heart Joyfully Compels Us To Lift Up The Source Of Our New Everlasting Life. We Can Now “Look And Live!”

Look: Greek - Blepo — To Understand, To Have Sight

Anablepo: To Recover Sight

Point #1: God's New Heart Means, "Stop Looking Back!"

Point #2: Time To Look Up And Experience Our New Hearts

Point #3: Keep Your Eyes On Jesus! Look!
